Discography:

INVISIBLE FACES (Animal Music, 2017)
Sound & mix: Milan Cimfe (Sono Records,
Nouzov) / Mastering: Pavel Karlík (Sono
Records, Nouzov)

“ Eastern European flavours with a Parisian jazz air. ”

Tom Newell,
Songlines, December 2017

“ A sophisticated blend of New and Old World influences, including Turkish violin, Balkan accordion and a pinch of tango nuevo. The result leaves as much space for listeners as for the musicians. A great opportunity for music adventurers. ”

Petr Dorůžka,
world music journalist & explorer

Tomáš Liška's "Invisible World" is a truly unique venture within the landscape of contemporary Czech music. The project's own musical compositions combine elements of Jazz, chamber music and World Music from the Mediterranean and South-Eastern regions of the European continent.

Their approach is not based on individual exhibitions, but rather on a philosophy where music is a clear and crystalline medium which irradiates a rich palette of emotional hues. These are inspired by strong melodies which are adorned by a subtle and seemingly effortless lacework of improvisation.

Invisible World performed on World & Jazz Festivals and venues across Europe, Africa, Japan, Scotland, and the United Kingdom. In 2017 they were awarded the Audience Award at the international music conference Ostrava Music Crossroads and showcased at the Ritmo Festival in Budapest. In 2018, they were nominated in the Jazz & Blues category for the Czech 'Grammy' award, 'Ceny Andel'.

Efe Turumtay (violin) was born in Istanbul, Nikola Zarić (accordion) in Serbia and Kamil Slezák (drums) in Moravia. Tomáš Liška (upright bass) met all three in the course of his musical journeys around the world while tirelessly searching for fascinating interactions between instruments and cultures which would enthral both him and his audiences.

Tomáš Liška: upright bass

Kamil Slezák: drums

Efe Turumtay: violin

Nikola Zarić: accordion
